BRITISH COUNCIL
WELCOME TO FILM AFRICA 2018!

The Royal African Society is delighted to present the eighth edition of Film Africa. Showcasing 39 titles from 15 different African countries, including 18 UK, European and World premieres, this year’s festival is yet another cinematic and cultural feast, which will challenge, move and inspire you!

Film Africa 2018 launches on Friday 2 November with the UK premiere of Blitz Bazawule’s The Burial of Kojo, an assured debut feature by Ghana’s foremost hip-hop artist turned filmmaker, and closes on Sunday 11 November with the UK premiere of Kasala! by up-and-coming Nigerian director Ema Edosio.

This year we focus on burgeoning cinema from two major creative hotspots on the continent, Kenya and Nigeria, through Afrobubblegum: Kenya’s Movie Mavericks and The Naija New Wave. Other special strands, Young Rebels and [Up]Rooted, explore the universal themes of youth, rebellion and the precariousness of migration. And our Dine & View and Film Africa LIVE! strands are back by popular demand, as are our festival awards - the Baobab Award for Best Short Film and the Film Africa Audience Award for Best Feature Film.

We are very proud to have established Film Africa as a festival of discovery for London’s diverse and inquisitive audiences and we continue to develop future audiences for African cinema through our annual Film Africa Young Audiences programme of schools and family screenings. This year we will also present two screenings with British Sign Language interpreted access in order to enhance the cinema experience of audience participants with a hearing loss or deafness.

This is just the tip of the iceberg. There is so much more to explore, including panel discussions, live performances and party nights! Once again, Film Africa offers something for everyone, so browse the programme and take your pick!

We look forward to welcoming you from 2 to 11 November. Please remember to book in advance so you don’t miss out!

Sheila Ruiz
Deputy Director
The Royal African Society
Bazawule’s assured debut incorporates the richness of musical influences from his background as a hip hop artist to the mystical textures of this intimate view of a Ghanaian family full of love yet overwhelmed by tragedy. Seven years after the accidental death of his bride at the hands of his brother Kojo, Kwabena appears with the promise of riches from illegal gold mining and a thinly-veiled desire for revenge.
Littered with sidesplitting lyrical pidgin and a firm hand in the new direction of Nigerian cinema, Edosio’s vibrant debut is a hilarious romp through the mean streets of Lagos. When a joy ride goes wrong, four friends employ infamous Las Gidi street hustles to fix their Uncle Taju’s car.

‘WE BELIEVE IN A FUN, FIERCE AND FRIVOLOUS REPRESENTATION OF AFRICA’

- WANURI KAHIU

A selection of films from the imaginations of Kenya’s brightest filmmakers teaches us how to unlock our inner superhero, fall in love, be experimental and turn a playful eye to the wacky, wonderful and downright frustrating elements of modern urban life.

SUPA MODO LONDON PREMIERE
Dir. Likarion Wainaina

Disguised as a superhero adventure, first time director Wainaina’s deeply emotional family tale follows young heroine Jo. 9 years old and terminally ill, Jo draws strength from her alter-ego Supa Modo to remind us of how imagination, movies and comic books can inspire hope where there is none, and help us heal.

SUN 4 NOV | 16:00 | BFI SOUTHBANK

WE NEED PRAYERS
Dir. The Nest Collective

Four episodes from The Nest’s latest innovation in direct to digital storytelling explore the contemporary urban dystopia. With a playful and magnified lens, The Nest explore the complex moralities used by citizens to navigate Nairobi known locally by its unscrupulous nickname Nairobi.

TUE 6 NOV | 20:30 | RICH MIX
RAFIKI + PANEL DISCUSSION
Dir. Wanuri Kahiu

“Good Kenyan girls become good Kenyan wives”, but Kena and Ziki want more. As love blossoms between them, the girls must choose between happiness and safety. Brimming with Afropop aesthetics and the dreamy intimacy of first love, Kahiu’s sophomore feature - banned in its home country - is a rallying indictment against Kenya’s homophobic laws.

Panel discussion hosted by gal-dem Culture Editor Micha Frazer-Carroll with Lady Phyll Opoku-Gyimah and special guests TBA.

WED 7 NOV | 19:00 | BERNIE GRANT ARTS CENTRE
FRI 9 NOV | 18:00 | RICH MIX*

*JOINT TICKET AVAILABLE WITH RAFIKI

SIDNEY AND FRIENDS
Dir. Tristan Aitchison

Shot over a period of three years, Aitchison explores Kenya’s intersex and transgender communities through the story of Sidney, an intersex person who flees from rural Kenya to Nairobi after being expelled from his family. In Nairobi, Sidney makes friends and together they explore life, love and relationships.

FRI 9 NOV | 20:30 | RICH MIX*

NEW MOON + DIRECTOR Q&A
Dir. Philippa Ndisi-Herrmann

Aspirations to make Lamu the biggest port in Africa are about to disrupt the rhythm of the historic Islamic island. In the midst of a mission to investigate the gigantic port project, Herrmann develops an interest in the Sufi Path shifting the narrative to an artist’s confrontation of a new spiritual awareness.

WED 7 NOV | 18:30 | RICH MIX
THE NAIJA NEW WAVE

With bold visual experiments and dynamic storytelling, a select group of Nigerian filmmakers break free of the Nollywood mould, signalling a world of possibility for filmmaking from Africa.

This new wave are carving out a dimensional national cinema that prides itself on varied styles and genres to reflecting the country’s diversity.

SYLVIA UK PREMIERE
Dir. Daniel Oriahi

Following the international success of neo-noir Taxi Driver (Oko Ashawo), Oriahi continues to push the boundaries of what we know and love in Nollywood. This intense psychological thriller centres on the childhood friendship between Richard and Sylvia that matures into troubled waters during the pair’s adulthood when Richard decides to marry his long-term girlfriend Gbemi.

SAT 3 NOV | 14:00 | BFI SOUTHBANK

A HOTEL CALLED MEMORY UK PREMIERE
+ INTRO BY NSE IKPE-ETIM
Dir. Akin Omotoso

Omotoso’s bold experiment with tone and visual poetics is immersive and largely silent. In a stripped back performance Nollywood starlet Nse Ikpe-Etim softens into the carefully crafted soundscape and cinematography. Set in Lagos, Zanzibar, and Cape Town, we follow Lola as she grapples with an immense sense of failure from a broken marriage.

SAT 3 NOV | 18:30 | BFI SOUTHBANK

DINE & VIEW

Our much-loved foodie strand returns with the perfect combination of cinema and sumptuous African cuisine with Senegalese dishes from Little Baobab.

DELTAS, BACK TO SHORES

UK PREMIERE
Dir. Charlie Petersmann
Switzerland. 2016. 75 mins. French, Portuguese, Arabic, Wolof with English subtitles.

On one side of the Gibraltar Strait, Ibrahima, a young Senegalese man living illegally in Tangier dreads the dangerous voyage to Europe. On the opposite shore, as the fishing trade declines, Agostinho is reluctant to depart for better employment in Holland. The two migration stories reveal the need and difficulty of finding one’s place as the globe falls into a state of crisis.

+ SEGA UK PREMIERE + INTRO
Dir. Idil Ibrahim

Alassane Sy (Restless City, Mediterranea) gives an incredibly compelling performance as Sega, a young Senegalese man navigating loss and disappointment when his efforts to reach Europe fail and he is thrust back into life in Dakar.

WED 7 NOV | 19:00 | SOUTH LONDON GALLERY
THU 8 NOV | 19:00 | BERNIE GRANT ARTS CENTRE*
TICKETS INC. A BUFFET MEAL

*Alassane Sy (SEGA) will introduce the screening at Bernie Grant Arts Centre.

With the kind support of Karma Cola
In the shadow of political strife or right up against it, some young Africans lose their way, while others mobilise their talents, cameras and imaginations to carve out a future of their own.

AMAL LONDON PREMIERE

Dir. Mohamed Siam

14-year-old Amal ends up on Tahrir Square during the Egyptian revolution. During the protests, she is beaten and dragged across the square by her hair. In the years that follow, Amal’s rapidly developing fearless persona cross-cuts with political events as she fights for respect and the right to participate in a country in transition.

BLACK MAMBA UK PREMIERE

Dir. Amel Guellaty

For Sarra, a young middle-class girl from Tunis, everything on the surface is going as her mother planned: she is taking sewing lessons and will soon marry a nice young man. However, Sarra conceals a talent that could allow her to escape her current life plans.

BOXING LIBREVILLE UK PREMIERE

Dir. Amédée Pacôme

Gabon. 2017. 54 mins. French, Guissire with English subtitles.

Young boxer, Christ, trains relentlessly by day, and at night works as a doorman in Libreville nightclubs. Pacôme’s intuitive feature debut implies more than it reveals. Gabon’s impending presidential election is seemingly incidental, reported casually on radio and TV, although its outcome will govern the lives of Christ and his loved ones.

SUN 4 NOV | 18:00 | RICH MIX

SUN 4 NOV | 18:00 | RICH MIX
UNCERTAIN FUTURE [LENDEMAINS INCERTAINS] UK PREMIERE
Dir. Eddy Munyaneza

In 2015, demonstrations against Pierre Nkurunziza's third term bring thousands to the streets of Bujumbura. As the violence gains ground and many including his own family flee, Munyaneza picks up his camera. Eventually seeking refuge in Senegal, Munyaneza goes in search of his family, along the way encountering those who stayed and those who chose the path of exile.

MON 5 NOV | 20:30 | RICH MIX

LOST WARRIOR LONDON PREMIERE + PANEL DISCUSSION
Dir. Nasib Farah, Søren Steen Jespersen
Somalia. 2018. 82 mins. Somali with English subtitles.

Mohammed lives underground in Mogadishu with no papers. Deported from the UK and in hiding from Al-Shabaab, the terrorist organisation he abandoned, he clings to a single hope - to escape Somalia and reunite with his wife and child in London. Lost Warrior puts a human face to the headlines with an investigation of the complex political circumstances that drive many to the most marginal positions.

Panel discussion with scholars Idil Osman & Hanna Ali plus director of the Anti-Tribalism Movement Adam Matan.

THU 8 NOV | 18:15 | BFI SOUTHBANK

AKASHA [THE ROUNDCUP] + DIRECTOR Q&A
Dir. Hajooj Kuka

Adnan is a heroic revolutionary who loves his AK47 as much as he loves his sweetheart Lina. When Adan and fellow soldier Absi fail to return to duty, army commander Blues launches a Kasha, the rounding up of truant soldiers. Will Adan and Absi escape their superiors? Will Adan be reunited with his beloved rifle? Through an unlucky friendship, we spend a comical 24-hours exploring village life and the ideology of rebel-held Sudan.

Film - English Subtitled. Introduction and Q&A - BSL Interpreted

SAT 10 NOV | 18:00 | RICH MIX
[UP]ROOTED

A selection of films about community and migration.

What do we sacrifice in pursuit of new homes and futures?

What awaits us on the other side?

A SEASON IN FRANCE
[UNE SAISON EN FRANCE]

Dir. Mahamat-Saleh Haroun
France. 2017. 100 mins. French, with English subtitles

Celebrated Chadian auteur Haroun’s latest work offers a dark yet compassionate view of the struggling underclass of immigrants in Paris. Abbas, a professor and father of two, tries to re-create a new life for his family after fleeing civil war while personal ghosts and impersonal bureaucracy stand in the way.

SAT 3 NOV | 20:30 | RICH MIX

CHATEAU [LA VIE DE CHATEAU]
+ DIRECTOR Q&A

Dir. Cédric Ido & Modi Barry
Courtesy of mk2 Films.

Fast talk, tall tales, tailored suits and heartfelt secrets. Welcome to Chateau! In the vibrant Afro-Parisian neighbourhood, Charles is the smoothest of all the hustlers. His job: to fill the districts hair salons with customers. But when the competition gets tough and everybody’s trying to be number one, dirty tricks are just around the corner.

+ HAIR CUT

Dir. Koby Adom

Veteran UK screen personality Robbie Gee leads as Jimmy, a middle-aged barber who dreams of escaping his rough neighbourhood and becoming a dancehall star.

Films - English Subtitled. Introduction and Q&A - BSL Interpreted

THUR 8 NOV | 18:30 | RITZY BRIXTON
FIVE FINGERS FOR MARSEILLES
Dir. Michael Matthews
South Africa. 2017. 120 mins. Sesotho, and English with English subtitles.

This intriguing South African Western-Thriller observes Tau who returns to his hometown of Marseilles after 20 years, only to find it — and some of his former friends — in the grip of a violent oppressive power, one he must reluctantly fight to liberate.

South by South is a series of quarterly film screenings showcasing the work of African artists alongside a programme of masterclasses for young filmmakers.

FRI 9 NOV | 19:00 | SOUTH LONDON GALLERY
BAOBAB AWARD

The Baobab Award for Best Short Film exists to recognise and support African filmmaking and to enhance the visibility of emerging new voices. The Award consists of a £1,000 cash prize awarded by a jury of filmmakers and industry professionals.

SAT 10 NOV | 14:00 | RICH MIX

LOSING PATIENCE
Dir. teeqs
Jamaica. 2018. 7 mins. English

A (very) mini web series, set in Kingston Jamaica, that follows the various adult-ing misadventures of its beleaguered protagonist, Renee Patience. With stand out leading debut performance from Singer/Songwriter Sevana, Teeqs and her heroine take on the everyday announces of modern life.

THE QUARRY
Dir. Eddie Kagutuzi

Is this the end or the beginning of a time? A man tries to escape parallels of time and is confronted by the past and the future. Stuck in the corridors of his mind his identity is challenged and he desires desperately to return to his former state.

ICYASHA [ETIQUETTE] UK PREMIERE
Dir. Marie Clementine Dusabeyambo

Fils is a twelve-year-old boy who loves football and desperately wants to join the neighbourhood boys’ team. However, his effeminate characteristics disqualify him from the team. Icyasha depicts a child forced to prove and claim masculinity while simultaneously illustrating the beauty and pain of childhood.
The Baobab Award is long listed in partnership with the National Film & Television’s MA in Film Studies, Programming & Curation, with the objective of encouraging an appreciation and knowledge of African cinema in the next generation of film programmers.

The winning film will be announced and screened at the Film Africa Closing Gala on Sunday 11 November (p. 5).

FILM AFRICA FAMILY DAY

Join us for our much loved Family Day! This year we’ll take you on a journey of discovery following a special FREE screening of Thomas & Friends: Big World! Big Adventures! There will be storytelling, arts and crafts and plenty of diverse children’s books and other multicultural gifts on sale courtesy of our partners, Book Love and Pelican Post.

The film will be introduced by Joanna Brown, who worked as a cultural adviser on the script to bring to life the new character of Nia, a steam engine from Kenya!

SUN 11 NOV | FILM 11:00 + ACTIVITIES 12:15 | RICH MIX

ALL SCREENINGS FEATURE AN INTRODUCTION, ARE FREE FOR STAFF AND ARE ACCOMPANIED BY A LEARNING RESOURCE PACK TO TAKE AWAY.

HOW TO BOOK
Film Africa Young Audiences screenings can be booked directly with the Picturehouse Education team.

TO BOOK VISIT: PICTUREHOUSES.COM/EDUCATION

ALL FAMILY SCREENINGS ARE FREE BUT BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL.
THANK YOU

We would like to express our gratitude to our principal partners and sponsors and to all of the venues, individuals and organisations whose collaborative efforts have contributed to making Film Africa 2018 a success.

A special thank you to all our volunteers, participating filmmakers, contributors and artists.
