About us

Film Africa is the Royal African Society's biennial festival and year-round programme celebrating the best African and African diaspora cinema. Established in 2011 with the remit of promoting a better understanding of Africa through film, every year Film Africa brings diverse London audiences a high quality and wide-ranging film programme accompanied by a vibrant series of events, including director Q&As, talks and discussions; industry events, workshops and masterclasses; school screenings and family activities through Film Africa: Young Audiences; and Film Africa LIVE! music nights. Film Africa also recognises and supports emerging and established talent through the Baobab Award for Best Short Film and the Film Africa Audience Award for Best Narrative Feature.

The Royal African Society is a membership organisation that provides opportunities for people to connect, celebrate and engage critically with a wide range of topics and ideas about Africa today. Through our events, publications and digital channels we share insight, instigate debate and facilitate mutual understanding between the UK and Africa. We amplify African voices and interests in academia, business, politics, the arts and education, reaching a network of more than one million people globally.

Job Overview

We are looking for someone passionate about African film and social media to join our small festival team in the lead up to the 10th edition of Film Africa. The successful applicant will have the opportunity to learn what it takes to successfully market a festival and to input their own creative ideas into the process.

Film Africa 2022 will take place across London venues and online and the marketing intern will support the Marketing & PR Consultant and Digital Communications Manager to deliver the festival marketing strategy, developing their skills in events marketing and working as part of a dedicated and supportive team. The role will entail the following main tasks and responsibilities:

Marketing & Content Management

- Provide ideas for exciting and engaging content to be shared on the Film Africa site, newsletter and across the festival's social media platforms.
- Write, schedule and post content for social media, newsletter and partner channels.
- Maintain the Film Africa site updated with the latest festival news and content, including daily rotation of the homepage during the 10 days of the festival.
- Upload the 2022 festival programme, including copy, stills and trailers onto the site by on-sale date.
- Support venues and partners by developing and sharing content.

Press & Publicity

- Assist the Marketing Coordinator in the creation of a public press folder.
- Assist the Marketing Coordinator in updating the press list.
- Add all festival press releases to the press section of the Film Africa site.

Evaluation

- Submit an evaluation and feedback report after completion of Film Africa 2022.
- Gather and record audience and contributor feedback from informal conversations.
- Support the monitoring and evaluation of the festival in other ways, as required.

General

- Attend weekly marketing meetings with the rest of the festival team to discuss progress.
- Conduct any other relevant tasks as requested by the Marketing & PR Consultant and the Digital Communications Manager to support the successful delivery of the overall marketing strategy.

Interviews: Thursday, 11th August 2022

Result: Monday, 15th August 2022

We accept applications from people who are based in the UK and currently have the right to work here. As a small charity, we are not in a position to sponsor visas for international applicants.

We want to contribute to making the film and wider cultural industry more ethnically diverse and inclusive and particularly encourage applications from people of African heritage and other backgrounds who are currently underrepresented in the sector.

We regret that due to limited resources we are unable to provide individual feedback on unsuccessful applications.
